

The Transaction Timeline

What's Happening on the Agent and Lender Sides

Good communication keeps the transaction moving.

When something changes on the buyer or contract side, make sure the lender knows. And when the lender has a financing-related update, make sure the appropriate people are in the loop.